Shipmates of Tacoma Yacht Club

TACOMA, WASHINGTON 98407

SHIPMATES is the ladies' auxiliary of the Tacoma Yacht Club. The object of this auxiliary is to promote friendliness among its members, encourage social activities, raise funds for charities, and promote the sport and science of boating.

Meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month, except in July and August, at the TYC clubhouse. Social time begins at 11:30, with lunch at noon and the program at 1:00. A short business meeting follows the program. All women of Tacoma Yacht Club are encouraged to join Shipmates. Just fill out the accompanying application and send to:

Our annual dues are minimal. Dues are charged to your TYC account upon joining and in May of each year thereafter. Current dues available from Shipmates' Membership Chair.

SHIPMATES activities include:

- Children's Christmas Party
- Decorating the Clubhouse for Christmas
- Tour of Boats
- Sale of Daffodil Festival Apparel
- Providing volunteers for Daffodil Festival
- Interclub - exchange luncheons with other yacht clubs' women's groups
- Providing additional needed equipment for TYC
- Community projects, including sponsoring needy families at Christmas, youth boating and other Tacoma area charitable programs.
- Fundraising to support all of the above activities.
